

Task: retrieving data from access database – weight 5%

Task: Consider the access database provided to you (see the relevant link in moodle in the section associated with the database). Write a GUI application which enables the user to enters the name of the table in a textbox, the application displays the content of the table row by row in another textbox.

Marking criteria:

1. Simple code and design – 20%
2. Efficient design – 30%
3. Correct output for displaying a table line by line: 50%